Scott Cousins put a jaw dropping 3m 37s into the next fastest rider in today's club open hilly. If you think it is about time someone else took a turn at the pointed end of the results, take a look at the astonishing time of George Wood. Additionally, supported by Adrian Tovey, Maldon took the team award. The only downside of the day was that over 10% of the starters suffered punctures. For full results CLICK HERE . Then a week later he wins the Chelmer 26.5 mile event at Finchingfield, making it four open time trial wins in four consecutive weekends (plus the road race win the weekend before he ventured into time trialling)!
